Introduction

A digital artist who is currently hopping between Hong Kong and Surrey, England. I am a reliable, enthusiastic individual with experiences in various areas, ranging from JapanTravel intern to Surrey Japanese and HKPASS Society committee member. These roles have developed my competence in photography, design, videography, event management and more.

I am also a Digital Media Arts student at the University of Surrey, who is always eager to learn and motivated to experiment with new ideas. I hope to become part of the industry where I can utilise and develop my creative skillsets.
